Slideshare - "You Tube for presentations"

Are you a presentation savvy corporate professional, student, professor or just love to share your presentations with the world. Here comes an online service named Slideshare launched recently by Liasato Consulting.

Slideshare basically presentation is a great service. It is like a You Tube for presentations. You can upload your Power Point or Open Office presentation files on Slideshare and share it as a web link with your clients, friends, faculty or with any one who wants to access your presentation. As a blogger you can embed slideshare into your blog. You can tag your slides as well, write comments on someone's presentation and explore list of presentations uploaded by others.

Know what we get inside from the utility and see how easy it is to upload and share the slideshare on "slideshare.net." As a starter you need an invite to access the site. You can ask for an invite just by filling some essential information on Slideshare or a slideshare user can send you an invite to use it. A user can invite up to 10 friends to join slideshare. Once you receive the invitation, you can sign in and start
